

U.S. Representative Russ Carnahan's Small Business Workshop Series

Planning Your Next Steps: How to Write an Effective Business Plan

Do you have a great idea for a small business? Are you thinking of expanding your current operations? Writing an effective business plan is critical as you consider your next steps and search for financing opportunities.

Join United States Representative Russ Carnahan Friday, July 9th at the South County Enterprise Center, 315 Lemay Ferry Road. Registration and networking begins at 7:30 a.m., and the program will begin at 8 a.m.

Learn more about how to write an effective business plan and upgrade existing plans for small businesses facing new challenges and market demands.

Program participants include:

- St. Louis County Enterprise Centers
- Small Business Administration
- Service Core of Retired Executives (SCORE)
- Small Business and Technology Development Center
- Veterans Business Resource Center

Representatives from these organizations will be on hand to share information vital in the planning stages of starting a small business. One-on-one consultations will be available after the speaking program.

There is no cost for this event, but registration is required and seating is limited. Please R.S.V.P to Representative Carnahan's office at (314) 962-1523 or at carnahansvp@mail.house.gov.

We hope to see you at this important event!